Dear 1st Baptist Jeffersontown,
Thank you for your thoughts & prayers during the passing of

How to Help Our Pastor Be a Great Pastor

1. Accept him as a man of God.

- Accept his humanity
- Accept his unique calling and preparation

2. Consider his great responsibility

- To be the shepherd of the flock- to lead the church in caring
- To be the leader of the church's programs; organizing, planning, teaching, training
- To lead the worship of the church
- To lead in reaching out to others, witnessing and sharing
- To participate in the association, denominational work, in local ministerial work

3. Support him adequately

- By prayer
- By encouragement
- By material resources
- By cooperation

4. Help him and his family to have privacy

- By understanding his study habits
- By insisting that he take time with his family

5. Add a personal touch

- Consider him a personal friend, treat him as one
- Surprise him and his family with special treatment at times, unplanned, unexpected
- Love him even if you disagree with him at times

PROJECT SPRING CLEAN-UP!

The First Baptist Trustee ministry will be conducting Project Spring Clean-Up.

Now, through Tuesday, May 16th, the team will be going through all church facilities and properties including parking lots and garages tagging items as “keep”, “donate”, and/or “trash”. Over the past few years, our areas have become overcrowded with stuff (i.e. old furniture, donations, personal items). Thus, we are asking that if you have any personal items currently stored in any First Baptist facility/area, even if you have received prior permission, that you make arrangements to have it removed within the next 30 days or it may be tagged to get rid of. Once everything has been properly tagged, all items that are tagged for either “donation” or “trash” will be made available for one (1) week to the congregation to “shop and take”, with no deliveries. After that, the items will be donated and/or trashed. We are asking for your prayers and understanding as we take on this project for the general upkeep and maintaining of all church properties.
