God's Not Done with Her Yet!

by Donna Pearson

Our very own Catrina Hill was recently selected by Walmart for placement of her seasoning line in their stores and online at walmart.com!

The last week of June Walmart hosted their 2022 Open Call conference in Bentonville, Arkansas; 13,000 vendors applied to attend the conference. Of those 13,000 vendors, 1,100 were selected for the event; Catrina was one of the vendors invited! This comes after years of working toward gaining placement with a large retailer such as Walmart. To Catrina's surprise, she was actually already one of three vendors who had been selected and given a "Golden Ticket", the day before her actual pitch! This ticket guarantees her products will be on at least 110 Kentucky Walmart store shelves by March 2023! Her products will also be available online at Walmart.com in a few months!

Catrina's journey into this industry began when she started a restaurant known as 'Dinner is Done' in Jeffersontown, Kentucky. She catered to patrons who wanted homestyle cooking with an atmosphere to match. Increasingly, she began to receive requests for her breadings and spices. Because of these requests, she decided to package and sell her products, known as Catrina's Kitchen Southern Spices. Catrina was inspired to start her own business because she wanted to leave a legacy for her children and grandchildren.

Due to continued health challenges, the business closed in 2011.

While Catrina acknowledges that it was a huge undertaking to get the products onto Walmart's shelves, she said the real work is keeping them there! To keep the products on the shelves, they MUST continue to sell! (We've got you Sis!)

So FBCJ, let's support our Sister! Once on Walmart's shelves, please tell your family and friends to purchase Catrina's Kitchen Southern Spices! We can buy them now online via Catrina's website - Catrinaskitchen.com or on Amazon. Her products can also be found now at Kroger, Garden Gate, and ValuMarket.

Catrina's product line includes the following:

- Southern Seasoned Flour
- Fish and Vegetable Seasoning
- A Little Somethin' Somethin' Seasoning

When I asked Catrina her secret to this level of success, she stated, "Staying prayed up; never quitting; determination; resilience; not listening to the naysayers; surrounding yourself with positive people."

Catrina you have expressed your love to us through your incredible dinners, dishes, and FISH sandwiches!...the list goes on! Your FBCJ Family is here to continue to pray for you, support you, and cheer you on! We love you!

To God be the Glory for ALL He has done!
