...discussion is THIS Sunday, the 31st, after morning Worship!

Please don't feel like you have to have the book finished to attend the discussion!

Thank You for Your Kindness...

First Baptist, my family and I want to thank you for every bended ear, hug, call, text, card, visit, thought, word of encouragement, and prayer on our behalf. Everything you did or said has been greatly appreciated and comforted our heart during my daddy's illness and passing.

Smooth Feelings

Roses are like spiral splotches of color

Flowing together like streams

The smell of cherry blossoms makes you dance

Pink overgrown flowers you tumble across

Kids running with no care in the world

Lavender smell sends chills down your spine

Prancing around in a periwinkle dress

Looking upon the hazy blue stream it waves hi

Crunchy leaves tickle your feet

With water gliding through your fingertips

The yellow daisies make you high-five the sun

Dads fishing and only catching happiness

Foggy window that you drew on

Little roads to a little town lined with daisies

Letting the jagged rocks ripple

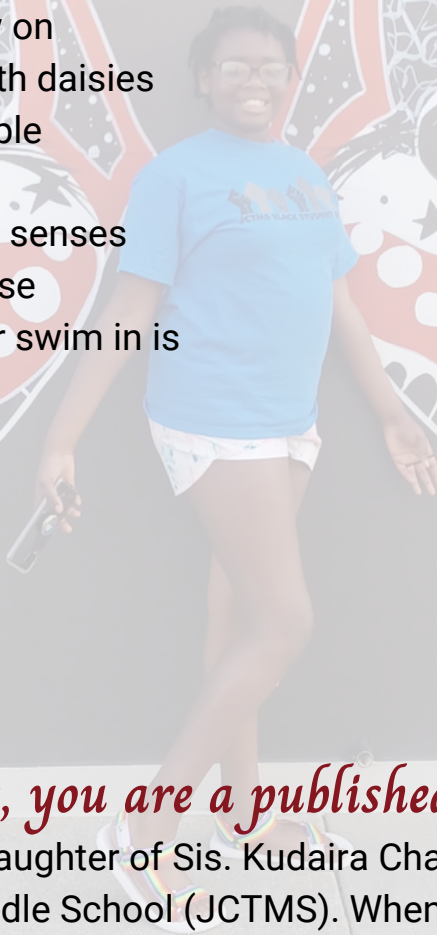

Overgrown moss takes over your senses

Fresh air flows into your nose

The light green lake you would never swim in is taunting you

Colors are smooth

Natalia Cross, you are a published writer!

Natalia Cross is the 11 year old daughter of Sis. Kudaira Charasika. She is a student of Jefferson County Traditional Middle School (JCTMS). When her mom asked her what inspired this poem, Natalia stated her project required her to listen to sounds, look at shapes and colors, to create a poem or written piece. Natalia's poem expresses how she felt listening to the sounds, colors, and viewing the various shapes/pictures. Natalia, BEAUTIFUL WORK! Your FBCJ Family looks forward to reading more of your written pieces! Please submit your work to @ A Glance anytime!
